

10383

4

(d) The evolution and transformation of Nainital as a hill station.

[This question paper contains 4 printed pages.]

Your Roll No.....

Sr. No. of Question Paper : 10383

K

Unique Paper Code : 6133400011

Name of the Paper : Evolution of Hill Station in India: From Colonial to Contemporary Times

Name of the Course : B.A. (VS) Tourism Management

Semester : VII

Duration : 3 Hours

Maximum Marks : 90

Instructions for Candidates

1. Write your Roll No. on the top immediately on receipt of this question paper.
2. Attempt any Four questions.
3. All questions carry equal marks.

10383

2

1. How did hill stations in colonial India evolve from their original role as sanatoria to becoming key social, political, and educational centers of the British Empire? Trace their development over time.
2. Explore how Shimla developed from a modest service town into a prominent hub for British political, social, and educational activities during colonial rule.
3. In what ways did colonial literature portray the native populations of hill stations, and how do these representations help us interpret the history of imperial presence in these areas?
4. Do you think that the military significantly influenced the growth of hill stations? If yes, what were the reasons behind this influence?

10383

3

5. Examine the urban development processes involved in the establishment and growth of hill stations in both colonial and post-colonial India.
6. What factors led to the development of hill stations as social and educational hubs during the British colonial period in India?
7. How has the colonial past contributed to traffic and overpopulation problems in hill stations?
8. Write short notes on any two of the following:
 - (a) Infrastructure established in hill stations during the colonial period.
 - (b) Environmental Changes Associated with the Development of Hill Stations.
 - (c) A documentary on hill stations that you particularly enjoyed.

P.T.O.